

Tuesday Lenten Series

INVITED, WELCOMED, CONNECTED ~

LIVING A VIBRANT FAITH (that just might change you and the WORLD!)

Supper, Conversation and Prayer

6:30-8:30 PM

All are welcome as we share food, prayer, conversation around ways to enliven our faith on Tuesday evenings. Specific speakers/topics and opportunities for prayer and service will be announced in February. Confirmation is happening at the National Cathedral on May 11 and these sessions are part of the requirement of preparation for confirmation. Please contact the Ann, ann@transfig.org, if you are interested in being confirmed, received, reaffirm your promises or would simply like to be part of the process for confirmation and make your decision at a later time.

March 12 – Moving forward: From Jesus to 2019: Making use of our connections to deepen joy in the living our faith! Small/mid-sized churches have transformed the lives of thousands and thousands of people. How is God empowering this community to live into the next phase of faithfulness with Christ and your new clergy?

Dinner—Jamaican Jammin'

March 19 – A Love Affair with God: See the beloved, Be the beloved. Receiving the embracing love of our creator can feel like slipping into a warm bath, relaxing, rejuvenating. Some practical ways of saying “Yes!” to God’s desire to show us love.

Dinner—African Affair

March 26 – Creating Safer Schools: TALK, PRAY, ACT

A Community Conversation to Eradicate Gun Violence in our Schools. Please invite everyone you know who is concerned about this ~ we can be the change – for the children.

Dinner—Cajun / Creole/ Soul

April 2 – Free Minds –Formerly incarcerated Poet Ambassadors from Free Minds Book Club and Writing Workshop will share with us their life stories and their poetry. They will connect us with poetry from currently incarcerated youth and we will have the opportunity to connect with them directly by giving them positive feedback in writing.

Dinner—BBQ (International Versions)

April 9 – “Every family has a story. Welcome to ours.” Connecting through sharing the stories of our lives. In our days of instant communication, we often know folks less well because of the pace of life and our need to keep moving forward. To be a community of Christ’s love is to know one another in a little different way. More to come!

Dinner—Comfort Food
